

Please join us for our Annual
Stewardship & Scholarship Barbeque

April 17, 2015, 5:00 - 7:30 p.m.
Braga's Barn, Soledad, CA

Join us for a good cause, dinner, recognition of local resource conservation leadership, and a special presentation of our Cooperators of the Year award. Dinner will feature barbecued tri-tip, fixings from local producers and locally-produced cheeses and wine. Silent and short live auctions will help raise money for our youth conservation education and technical assistance programs. Come to hear more about our efforts and visit with friends and local conservation partners. We look forward to seeing you there!

PROGRAM

5:00 Hors d'oeuvres and Silent Auction

Local merchants and farmers have donated items and services for auction to support our conservation education and scholarship programs including our Speak-Off Competition, FFA Land-judging, and Range Camp scholarships and resource stewardship guidance. The week-long California Range and Natural Resources Camp in Half Moon Bay provides hands-on experience with cattle, wildlife, streams and vegetation management skills.

6:00 Dinner & Close of Silent Auction

6:30 Welcome and Presentation of Cooperators of the Year Award winners

7:00 Live Auction

OUTSTANDING COOPERATORS

Monterey County Landowners demonstrating innovative resource stewardship on their lands.

The RCD and our partners want to recognize the outstanding contributions local County land stewards have made to local resource management, as they produce some of the world's best food in a region of renowned natural resources.

Please help us celebrate 2015's Cooperators of the Year and their contributions to Monterey County natural resource stewardship.

For more information about this event, please call Paul Robins at 831-424-1036, ext. 124
